MUSIC ISLAND GAZETTE

January 2019 #63

Welcome to Music Island! We want to invite you to a special event on Martin Luther King's day. My good friend, Jim Ferraiuolo, and I will be part of the program. Jim & I have been playing together for many years, and this is an occasion dear to our hearts. Please help us support the MLK Freedom Library on Doctor King's birthday. All details in the flyer below and Calendar section.

RAFFLE

One lucky winner will receive an autographed copy of "Air Guitar", the superb new CD by guitarist extraordinaire, Vinny Raniolo. From his site: "As a touring musician and educator, Vinny is best known for his accompanying skills; he's a very high demand rhythm guitarist. He's performed in14 countries on three continents, in some of the world's most illustrious venues: the Sydney Opera House in Australia, The Palace of Fine Arts in San Francisco, New York's Lincoln Center and the world's oldest indoor concert hall, Teatro Olimpico in Vicenza, Italy. Vinny has become a familiar figure on Public Television, appearing in the popular Tommy Emmanuel and Friends; in Frank Vignola's Four Generations of Guitar, as the youngest generation in the lineage of jazz guitarists with veteran Bucky Pizzarelli, and in the Music Gone Public series." "Air Guitar" includes a wide variety of new and vintage material done in an original, engaging style. For example: Blue skies, Leaving On A Jet Plane, Stardust, Volare. Please visit his site to explore Vinny's cool music and fantastic instructional methods.

The winner for last issue's raffle is Herman Creque, from South Carolina. He wrote me that I should " just let everyone know that he is a happy afro-Dominican who loves all his brothers and sisters, and wishes everyone Peace & Love in these so challenging days." Herman won an autographed copy of the Christmas classic, "A Very Gypsy Christmas", by virtuoso guitarist Doug Munro & La Pompe Attack. To learn about Doug's fabulous music, gigs, instructional material, & more, please visit his site.
